Jahnaya Mann Bio

Jahnaya Mann is a graduate of the College of Pharmacy and Nutrition at the University of Saskatchewan. She has over 22 years of practice in community pharmacy beginning as a student while she studied. In May of 1999 she joined the Pharmasave team in Swift Current as a staff pharmacist and has transitioned to owner and manager of Pharmasave 406 in Swift Current and Pharmasave 403 in Pontoix.

Jahnaya's strengths include her devotion to her patients and her ability to build relationships with ease based on the philosophy of care before commerce. She believes in treating her patients like friends and family and caring for them in all ages and stages of life. Jahnaya specializes in Osteoporosis management and is a certified Heart Health Coach.

In her past 16 years in the community Jahnaya has worked hard to develop a network of Health Professionals she can reach out to and work together with to provide the best care for the patients she serves. Jahnaya is an avid supporter of her community evidenced in her being the 2015 recipient of the Bowl of Hygiea Award, a national pharmacist award recognizing outstanding service to the community. She is an innovator and a first adaptor of new pharmacy services and the changing role of the profession such that Jahnaya and her team received the Pharmacists Association of Saskatchewan's Professional Services Award this past year. Jahnaya and her team have also been the recipients of numerous business and innovation awards and nominations both locally and provincially.

Pharmasave Swift Current believes in investing in the community that supports them. They are honoured to be a part of the Great Southwest.
